

African Centre for Indigenous Phenomenon Studies (ACIPS)

ACIPS Newsletter - New Year 2025 (Issue #002)

Dear Friends, Members, and Supporters of ACIPS,

As we embark on 2025, the African Centre for Indigenous Phenomenon Studies (ACIPS) extends heartfelt greetings and immense gratitude for your unwavering support in advancing African indigenous knowledge, spirituality, and metaphysical research.

Highlights and Plans for 2025

1. Research Milestones

In 2024, ACIPS achieved notable progress in selecting its key research areas to commence its functional operation in this year 2025. The key areas are (Click to read more):

- Metaphysical Phenomena: Unraveling African cosmologies and their spiritual implications.
- Ancient Knowledge: Exploring literature and traditions to enrich modern understanding of African spirituality.
- Cosmic Perspectives: Investigating extraterrestrial studies through indigenous African lenses.

2. Launch of the African Journal for Pan-Vitalism and Social Phenomena web platform

The redesigned journal launched in 2024 on Nana Henewaa ePublication is aimed at making it a critical platform for scholars and practitioners with interests in Afrocentric writing on African world spiritual matters.

- 2025 Focus: Special editions on Ubuntu and innovative intersections of African traditions with modern challenges.
- Call for Submissions: Researchers and thought leaders are invited to contribute groundbreaking work to enrich global and local discourses.

3. Upcoming Conference: Ubuntu and the African Renaissance

We are thrilled to announce ACIPS's inaugural conference, “Ubuntu and the African Renaissance: Bridging Tradition and Innovation”, scheduled for late 2025.

What to Expect:

- Keynotes from leading thinkers and practitioners.
- Interactive workshops on African spirituality and metaphysics.
- Collaborative discussions on integrating tradition with modern innovation.

Collaboration and Engagement

ACIPS thrives because of your involvement and collaboration. For 2025, we invite you to:

- Submit Articles: Share your insights through our journal.
- Join Our Conference: Be part of an inspiring intellectual exchange.
- Support ACIPS: Contribute to our mission through donations, partnerships, or sponsorships.

Together for a Brighter Future

Your continued support is pivotal in advancing the mission of ACIPS. Let's make 2025 a year of groundbreaking achievements, collective growth, and enduring impact. In this vein, we extend our heartfelt appreciation to those who have sincerely accepted to play a significant role with us as the expression of love for the African people, humanity, and the continent. Your names will of course be outdoors on this platform soon.

Warm regards,

Management

 Pietermaritzburg, South Africa |  Email: info@acipssa.org.za |
Website: www.acipssa.org.za |  Phone: (+27) 076 190 2650

© 2025 African Centre for Indigenous Phenomenon Studies. All Rights Reserved.